

HVAC systems competence centre

Always the right comfort temperature

InnoTrans 2026

Maintenance of HVAC systems

Workshop & expertise

- State-of-the-art workshop facilities for overhauls, refurbishments and test dismantling
- In-depth expertise in HVAC systems, vehicle types and operating modes
- Reliable maintenance of systems and components

Product portfolio

- Driver's cab air conditioning units, passenger air conditioning units and sub-assemblies
- A wide range of products from renowned manufacturers
- A customer base comprising the rail and light rail sectors as well as other industries

Capacities & continuous development

- Continuous expansion of capacity
- Further product launches possible at any time
- Product development at the competence centre

Centre of excellence for HVAC systems

Service & supply

- Spare parts supply with a materials and logistic strategies
- Mobile service teams for rapid on-site support
- Technical consultancy and engineering for complex projects

Sustainability

- Certification available for system conversions from R134a refrigerant to propane and conversions to other alternative, natural refrigerants are possible
- Extension of service life through targeted analysis and maintenance
- Promotion of the circular economy through material recovery

Our network of depots

- Scalable maintenance across multiple locations
- Project implementation within the network of depots

Centre of excellence for HVAC systems

The added value for your fleet

- Shorter lead times and more cost-effective maintenance compared to the market average
- Combined expertise and continuous development in partnership with the industry
- Manufacturer-independent service and maintenance
- Flexible capacity and rapid refurbishment times
- Refurbishment in accordance with your customer specifications and requirements
- Condition monitoring for early identification of maintenance needs
- One-stop shop for repair and maintenance

